

Council Policy – Elected Member Recordkeeping

Responsible Directorate	Corporate Services
Responsible Business Unit/s	Governance
Responsible Officer	Manager Governance
Affected Business Unit/s	Governance

Objective

The objective of this policy is to provide guidance to elected members regarding their record keeping responsibilities and establish appropriate practices to facilitate the ease of capture of elected member records.

Scope

This policy applies to all elected members of the Shire of Ashburton (the Shire).

Policy Statement

Elected members' records are important and necessary as they serve as a history of the transaction and business process of local government and member accountability functions arising from their participation in the decision-making processes of Council and committees.

Some local government records created and received by elected members have continuing value to the Shire and should be incorporated into the Shire's records management system.

Government records

Records created or received by elected members that relate to local government business must be captured, regardless of a record's format or where it was received, as part of the local government's corporate memory in accordance with the Shire's Recordkeeping Plan.

Government records include:

- Correspondence and communications
- File notes made after verbal communications, meetings, phone calls etc.
- Video and audio recordings
- Photographs
- Email
- Social Media posts (e.g. Facebook, Twitter)

- Databases
- Websites
- Messages from Apps (e.g. WhatsApp, Messenger)
- TXT messages.

When to create and capture a record:

- Information is related to Council business
- An action is required
- A decision or commitment is made
- Business need: for future reference by yourself or others
- Historical: identifies Council activity over time.

What should be recorded?

Communications	Examples
Written	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Complaints and compliments</li> <li>• Correspondence concerning corporate matters</li> <li>• Submissions, petitions and lobbying</li> <li>• Information for Council's interest relating to local government business activity and functions.</li> </ul>
Verbal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Telephone, meetings and other verbal conversations regarding local government projects or business activities</li> <li>• Addresses, speeches and presentations delivered as part of an elected member's official duties.</li> </ul>

Work diaries/appointment books	Where it contains information that may be significant to the conduct of the elected member on behalf of the local government.

What doesn't need to be recorded?

Communications	Examples
Duplicate copies	Council meeting agenda, minutes and papers.
Draft documents or working papers	Where they are already captured at the local government.
Publications	Newsletters, circulars, journals etc.
Invitations	To community events where an elected member is not representing Council or the local government.
Verbal	Which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• convey routine information only, or</li><li>• do not relate to local government business or functions.</li></ul>
Elections	Electioneering or party-political information.
Personal records	Communications not related to an elected member's official duties.

How to capture records

Elected members can forward records of continuing value to the Shire for incorporation into the records management system.

Elected members can do this by:

- forwarding emails/electronic records to emrecords@ashburton.wa.gov.au, or
- hard copy records can be hand delivered to the Shire's administration offices or given to the Governance Officer at the monthly Ordinary Council Meeting.

Elected member correspondence

Correspondence addressed to elected members received at the Shire office, including those marked Private, Confidential, Personal will be opened by designated officers, and if of continuing value, incorporated into the records management system, before forwarding to the elected member.
